The main feature of the advantages of the turbine is that it does away with all vibration. It is very simple, and with contradictions, charges and countercharges. He finally decided that no case had been made out by the child-bride, whose chief compliant was that upon the shaft. The drum revolves; the cylinder remains stationary. Steam enters at one end of the cylinder and escapes at the other.

There are no pistons, cams, eccentrics, connecting rods or any of the compli-cated devices required on reciprocating engines to convert this form of motion engines to convert this form of motion into rotary. In the turbine rotary motion is imparted direct to the shaft by the pressure of the steam. The method by which this is done is wonderfully ingenious, yet simple in its operation. There are alternating rows of blades or values between the exterior face of the cylinder.

There are 1.250,000 blades in the turbines of the Curmania. There is no riction in the turbine; no packing rings or stuffing boxes to obviate leakage of steam, and no internal lubrication is required in the cylinder.

The water turbine has been in existence from time immemorial, and countless generations of engineers have striven to devise soms means of using steam in the same economical meaner to drive a shaft. Here, of Alexandria, who fived 120 B. C., is believed to have been the first to tackle the problem.

280 Broadway, who brought suit for the little girl and her parents, presented this statement of fact in his original complaint: For many years the father of the girl had worked for Finelite while he resided in Jersey City. The employer was godfather for several of the Stark family. He took a great interest in Lena from the time she was a baby. After his third wife had obtained a divorce from him he agreed with the parents of Lena that they should be married.

At that time he had moved to this city. Under the divorce decree he was forbidden to marry in this State, so it

They took a rest though when the wireless station at Sable Island reported the boat they hoped to be the first to sight was fifty miles south of that station at 3 o'clock this morning. At 1 o'clock this morning. At 1 o'clock this afternoon also was in wireless communication with the station at Siasconsett, Mass. being then 255 miles east of Nantucket and will reach her dock about 6 o'clock to-moreow night.

The new steamer is the Carmania of the Cunard line. She is the sister ship of the Caronia, and in every way the two are alike excepting that the Carmania has the turbine engines. This style of engine is doclared to be in every way superior to the reciprocating engine.

NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 9.—Following NO SENATORS AT the suggestion of President Roosevelt the body of Capt. Woodbury Rane, the prominent yachteman and clubman. regiment who died in New York Wednesday, was buried with military honors to-day in the family plot at the Island Cemetery.

Rev. Walter Lowry, rector of Trinity Church, read the Episcopal burial service, after which a detail of the Newport artillery company, which Col. Robinson had selected at President Roosevelt's request, fired a volley over the grave, and a bugler sounded taps. Many summer residents came from New York to attend the services.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, that sent by President Roosevelt and the one from Capt. Kane's class at Harvard, attracting much attention.

She was tired out, and after scolding the doctor the two went over to a casino to have some refreshments.

They came back to the Dickson home and the doctor went inside. He borrowed a dollar and started out again.

He went to several saloons, and was in the company of the motormen and conductors, all of whom knew him as the "Doc." That was at 3 o'clock.

The next that was seen of the doctor was when he was found dead.

Miss Dickson is prostrated. Her condition is so serious that there are grave fears for her life.

After having made a thorough investigation Corcher berry to-day said he was convinced that Dr. Matheson was slain by the missing watchman.

"I believe Dr. Matheson came staggering along Fulton avenue and either sather or fell against the boards covering some coment barrels," said the Coroner.

"The watchman hearing a racket ran out, saw a man and without waiting to investigate fired off his pistol."

ALBANY, Dec. 9.—Two mundred boys and girls of Troy Hitgh School stormed the Capitol to-day in behalf of Prot. Walthour, the discharged principal They carried a large banner, bearing the inscription. "We Want Walthour." Principal Walthour was put out of office a few days ago by the Troy School Board of Education, his discharge giving rise to a scandal.

It was said that Mayor Hogan was enraged because Walthour refused to contribute to the Mayor's campaign contribute to the Mayor's campaign fund last November, and that he relalisted by putting the principal out of office.

A citizen's movement was organised to detend Walthour, and all the chinaren in the school went on a strike. They were persuaded by Walthour to return to school and the fight for his reinstatement is being bitterly carried on.

The band of pupils that stormed the Capitol to-day crowded into the offices of the State Regents and demanded that the State interfere in Walthour's behalf. They presented a petition and threatened to quit school again if something were not done to put their principal back is office.

The department promised to give their petition consideration.
